Remembrance Day Reflections by the Grade 4/5 class

Poppies bloom in the fields where the soldiers fought long ago. We must remember that in the fields, they stood their mark so we could have freedom now. We must remember, for they stood their stand.

-Scarlett

It's crazy that 12,000+ people died in the war. I was expecting a number close to 500; that's nowhere near close to about 12,000+. I guess the only thing I know about the war is that I hope World War 3 doesn't start. That would be scary. I would also check Google to see if anyone else died.

-Ethan

Lest we forget where the Poppies grow where our soldiers fought so long ago.

Thank you God, for our free country,

where we live so happily.

Thank you God, for the soldiers who bravely fought and for all the lives that were sadly lost.

Thank you God, for all you do and that the soldiers who died can be in heaven with you.

-Addy

It was sad. Lots of people died in the war. My Papa was in it.

-Bryce

It is so hard to think that so many people went to war and never came back. That would be so sad. I would be so sad if one of my family members never came back from the war. And it's so hard to think that some wars are still happening. Dear Lord, please help the people who are still in the war; help them come back safely - Amen. We wear Poppies to remember the people in the war.

-Eva

Some men didn't make it. Some families lost many lives. God help them to be strong. Please help those who are struggling. Thank you to those who stood up for us. Please help them to be safe. Thank you for helping us.

-Parker

If you would like to purchase these $25 and $50 gift cards, kindly get in touch with our office before December 1st. We will ensure that the cards are ordered and prepared for pickup during the first week of December.

Purdys Fundraiser

This year's Grad class is once again doing a Purdys fundraiser. Stock up on beautiful Christmas gift boxes, fun chocolate bunnies, Sweet Georgia Browns and more. Satisfy those cravings, and get all your Christmas gift shopping done while supporting a great cause.

The Purdys catalogues went home with students this week. You can also place an order online by clicking this link. Click "Join Campaign" to get started and enter the campaign number 41642. All orders must be placed by Nov. 17, and the items will be available for pickup on Dec. 6.
